DOWNLOAD HERE

Some firms prefer to use their own standards that specifically meet their needs, and that works great for them. Developing and maintaining office standards, is a time consuming process and many firms opt. I have seen many CAD managers searching on how to prepare the CAD Standards for their company. I am sure, my well written CAD standards will help those people who wants to prepare their own standards for their company easily. Note: I've marked the text in red which need to be changed, so that you won't face difficulties while editing.
