The extension .diz is used to enable you to put the whole product directly in a blog tool. This way you do not need to worry, that these lists/descriptions (a.k.a. not-real Estate-content) get published on your site. The blogging tool should only process .txt-files. Hence .txt is used only for publishable real Estate content, but not for internal information. It is just used to make your life easier. P.P.S. Visit salvador.tradebitfor other high quality products.
