

Paypal Made Simple

Many people would like to get into Internet Marketing and sell resell products or even their own products. Although there is a lot of information available to Newbies on how to become involved with IM, how to find good products to resell, how to build a website, and more; many newbies find themselves a little stumped when it comes to adding a Paypal Buy Now Button on their new sales pages. Unfortunately, Paypal doesnt give the best how to information in their FAQs either. I noticed this problem when a friend of mine that makes quite a bit of money in AdSense Revenue and is very proficient with HTML and web design came to me and said, I have never added a Paypal Button to any of my sites because I dont have the time to learn how to do it by myself.
