Usually, right Thanksgiving, people start gearing up for the Christmas season. They drag out the decorations, cut down or buy a Christmas tree, and start making their homes festive. Those decorations help to truly get us "in the Christmas Spirit." You could do what most people do. You could go to your local discount or department store and purchase your tree ornaments and other decorations. But how special would it be to make your own? Making your own Christmas decorations isnt as hard as one might imagine. You dont have to be overly talented or creative. The main reason to make your own decorations is to have something that isnt really available in stores something different and unique to your home - something that makes Christmas even more special. This book contains easy to follow fun craft ideas. Use them, share them and celebrate Christmas the old fashioned way!
