on the road to a more positive image of yourself that you will be able to employ every day and lead to improving your self-esteem in just three days! The way we feel about ourselves can color our whole world. When we think poorly of ourselves, we begin to tell ourselves that we aren't capable or worthy of being anything of any consequence. This Just Isn't True! Everyone in the world I don't care who they are was put here for a purpose. That may sound trite and typical, but it's true. We may not all have a grand purpose in life, but we do have a purpose. Maybe yours is to be a great parent. Perhaps you were made to affect the lives of others through teaching. Or it may just be that you are supposed to be the life saver of others. When you start reading our book, you'll begin an amazing journey that will allow you to not only raise your own self-esteem, but the self-esteem of others around you. A Positive Attitude Is Catching!

Once you start taking care of yourself and exuding the positive attitude that will come from higher self-esteem, the people around you will not only be glad to see this new-happy-you, they'll start acting a lot more positive and upbeat themselves! What can you expect when you begin to raise your self-esteem? You will have an overall positive attitude You will value yourself highly You will be fully convinced of your own abilities You will see yourself as competent, in control of your own life and able to do what you want. You will compare yourself favorably with others and know that you belong wherever you are Your self-esteem issues didn't happen overnight. There's a reason why you don't hold yourself in high regard. Those issues won't go away overnight either, but you have to start somewhere! The way we've designed this amazing book is to give you the tools you will need to begin raising your self-esteem in just three days one weekend.
