How to Write Covered Calls..... Covered calls actually are very simple. A covered call is just a simple combination of two things: buying shares of stock and selling call options on those shares. The point of a covered call, which I'll explain in more detail, is to generate an income of 3 to 5 each and every month. First, let me briefly explain stock options, how they are used and why you want to sell them - not buy them..... A stock option (also known as an "equity" option) gives its holder the RIGHT, but no obligation, to either BUY or SELL 100 shares of a specific company's stock (ex: Apple), for a specified time period, at a specified price (the "strike price" or "exercise price").
