Identify your target market, create a brand image and connect with your customers with a successful branding strategy! In 2010, the top five brands of the world (according to Interbrand.com) were: Coca Cola, IBM, Microsoft, Google and GE. Google and Microsoft are leaders in their fields, not only because their services are incomparable, but also because their branding strategies are par excellence. Your business, too, can attain great heights with the right Branding Strategy. Grab the attention of your stakeholders Strengthen your position in the marketplace Ensure that your customers remember you Communicate your organizations mission and core values Increase your sales manifold Get customers, employees and vendors excited about their association with you Attract the best talent in the industry Communicate your business priorities Manage your reputation and stay on top of competition Give your company a presence that borders on omnipresence. Make it visible everywhere Control how others perceive you Emphasize your individuality in the crowded marketplace Become a market leader Embed the value that you create into the consciousness of your target audience Appeal to peoples memory of an association with your company Have consistent messages about your companys image, products or services Make it easier for existing customers to refer you to their friends and associates Brands send the right message about what you are offering your customers Branding is an exercise of trying to connect emotionally with your customers, staff members and associates
