It was designed in America and aimed at affluent Americans who wanted a stylish well built and fully equipped coupe. In the Japanese market it was badged a Toyota, the Soarer to be precise, and was conceived as a sporty model, but on the other side of the Pacific it carried the Lexus badges of Toyotas premium brand and was a luxury model. The cars that come here are Japanese Soarers, but some have been rebadged as the Lexus SC300/400. Format: PDF Language: English Searches:sc400 fsm pdf
