How To Write Your Very Own Free Report In Less Than 60 Minutes & Quickly Distribute It For Generous Profits! Ah! You see the point in NOT to sell the free report and make a bushel basket full of money from the sales. The entire point of a free report is to give people the report in exchange for their names and email addresses. Not that the report isnt valuable sometimes a report is and sometimes its just a bunch of hooey, but the names and email addresses of those who download these free reports are much more valuable than the report will ever be even the good ones. Actually, Mike Filsaimes Death of Internet Marketing free report contains some very good information. The scare tactics used werent very appealing but the information was good. It wasnt world shaking and it wasnt anything that was really new. It was a well put together report and it was very well written. Free reports are big now days on the Internet. Its a bandwagon that many Internet marketers are jumping on simply because it works. You can either download a report from a Private Label Rights site or several articles that contain the information that you want to include in your free report and combine the articles to make one longer report. All material that is downloaded from PLR sites should have at least some rewrite done before you use it on your own site, anyway. Now this report will teach you all the aspects of free reports and how to profit from them
