As a special Thank You I have arranged for you to have a very special gift. It's a truly outstanding book called, A Life on Fire - Living Your Life with Passion Balance & Abundance. And it's designed to help you on your personal journey to discover and live your destiny! In this book you have one of the best and most effective ways to get aligned with your life purpose: by spending time with people who have been remarkably successful at living theirs. Over the recent months our friends at Healthy Wealthy nWise Magazine interview people who are legends in their own fields about how they achieved success. Through this inspirational collection of cover story interviews with some of the most successful, brilliant authors and speakers of our time you will get a taste of how dedicated they are to giving you the knowledge and inspiration for living a life of balanced abundance. You have unique talents and gifts which no one else but you can give to the world. This book will inspire you on your personal journey to discovering and living your personal destiny. It is our delight to bring you this incredible collection. Here are the mentors you'll be learning from: Jack Canfield Jack is best known as co-creator of the Chicken Soup for the Soul series. In this interview you'll learn some of the personal parts of Jack's life that have allowed him to enjoy phenomenal success. What's the best way to be successful? Model the habits of those who already are. This interview will give you that chance. T. Harv Eker Starting with a $2,000 loan on his credit card, Harv went from zero to millionaire in less than two and a half years. After years of building successful businesses, Harv now teaches some of the most powerful and transformational courses in the world which over 200,000 people have attended. He says we all have a "blueprint" for either success or failure, for wealth or poverty. In this interview, you'll learn how to change your "financial blueprint" to create the success you want in your life. Marianne Williamson Powerful doesn't even begin to describe Marianne Williamson, bestselling author of A Return to Love. As she says in this interview, "I try to concern myself most with the level of cause, with the things that do not change, and when I do that, the level of effect seems to take care of itself. I think if I concern myself with eternal issues, then more temporal ones fall into place more easily." Profound thoughts for a profound life. This interview will take you to your own core. Robert G. Allen Bob has written five books which have become #1 New York Times bestsellers including Nothing Down, the most successful financial book of all time, and Creating Wealth. The National Speaker's Association has called Bob "America's Top Millionaire-Maker." What may surprise you when you read this interview is his deep spiritual nature, and the honesty with which he is able to talk about the lessons he's learned. When you apply those lessons in your own life, you may be able to avoid some of the potholes Bob fell into on his way to becoming a multi-millionaire. Jay Abraham Personal mentor to over 10,000 small and medium-sized businesses, Fortune magazine called Jay Abraham, "one of the five top executive coaches" in the country. He has literally made billions of dollars for his clients while making millions for himself. In this interview Jay talks for the first time about his passions, how they led him to his success, and why passion is the foundation of success for anyone. Brian Tracy Brian Tracy, best selling author of more than 28 books (by the time you read this, Brian will certainly have written one or two more), he speaks to over 450,000 people a year. You will love his straightforward answers to the questions in this interview, and the simple, powerful advice he gives which you can put to use immediately.
