Choosing to adopt a child is just the beginning of a life changing but infinitely rewarding journey. The process of adoption may not take as much money and effort as you think, depending on the agency youve contacted and your preferences, but its definitely going to require you to wait for a good amount of time before the adoption process can be finalized. This book goes in depth about the rigors of adopting a child. It explains the process from start to finish and will provide an immense amount of knowledge to any person or couple considering adoption.
