Impress your friends and colleagues with your new-found bartending knowledge! It takes more than a recipe to make a great drink. Just using the right ingredients doesn't mean your drink will taste like it was meant to. Most of the time its the way a drink is mixed and served that makes it either an exceptional drink or one that gets dumped into the nearest flower pot. That is the reason why I have assembled The Bar Master package. With The Bar Master Bartenders Handbook you will find all the tips and techniques necessary to make your drinks taste like those of a seasoned professional. Take a look at what is inside The Bar Master Bartenders Handbook: Chapter 1 - Bartending Basics Basic supplies you will need for a professionally equipped bar Standard Bar Measures Glass Ware Stocking Your Bar Bar Hints & Tips Density Chart For Liqueurs Common Bar Terms How to Chill Cocktail Glasses How to Cut Lemon Twists How to Flame a drink How to Layer a Cocktail A recipe for simple syrup How to Make Sour Mix How to Muddle a Drink Chapter 2- Your Responsibilities As A Host How to Recognize Signs of Inebriation Dealing with someone who is drunk With the The Bar Master Bartenders Handbook you will learn the techniques, but The Bar Master Package wouldn't be complete without a complete database of drink recipes. With many drink programs you receive just 200-400 different recipes, but we want you to look like a seasoned pro, so you will also receive The Bar Master Software, a collection of over 2300 of the most popular cocktail recipes. The Bar Master Software is easy to use, and you can easily and quickly find the cocktail recipe you are looking for with it's keyword search feature or by alphabetical listing. Here are a couple of screen shots of the actual software: Order The Bar Master Package for only 27.00, and the next time you have a party or act as the bartender, you can do it like a professional.
