Are You Trying To Beat The Odds? Don't Back A Medical Looser. . . The siren is howling and the ambulance is shifting back and forth weaving through the Monday morning rush hour traffic. The emergency medical technicians are checking your vital signs and using that doctor speak that you hear on television. The pain in your chest is almost unbearable, yet even through the hazy fog of pain your mind keeps shifting back to one nagging thought, Why didnt I buy that health plan? What is Amy going to do? Even if I make it, theres no way we can afford this! From: Timm R. Miller Wednesday 5:42 PM Dear Patient, Unfortunately, this is a scene that is played out around the country every single day. Here is one more husband and father coming face to face with reality. Instead of, it will never happen to me, it has become, why did this happen to me? Will our husband and father survive? If he does, what are the chances that he and his family will resume a normal lifestyle? Statistically, our fellow has a 40 chance of survival depending on how long hes been abusing his body. Sadly, with no health insurance coverage and no available cash, the medical bills will likely force him into bankruptcy. All one needs to do is turn on the TV or tune in a talk radio program and the subject of health insurance will pop up sooner rather than later. Following up terrorism and the economy, the skyrocketing cost of health insurance is polarizing our country. Our health care system is in major need of revamping but unfortunately our leaders have made it just one more political issue. In the meantime, the average American continues to grapple with the rising costs or, take a gamble like our friend and hope they beat the odds. What can one person do? The first thing you need to do is realize that you MUST have health coverage of some kind, even if only to cover the catastrophic expenses like our friend. The second thing you can do is to get informed! Its very difficult to fight a war when you know nothing about the enemy. Yes, most insurance plans are so unwieldy and garbled that they make it almost impossible to understand. Thats where Your Guide To Good Health Insurance comes in. This guide is not just another directory health insurance providers who are advertising their products. Written in plain English! Thats correct! We have prepared Your Guide To Good Health Insurance so that anyone can understand the terminology without requiring a law degree. Take a look at what you will learn: What are the different types of health insurance policies How does disability income insurance work What are the differences between individual and group policies Learn about different types of providers How do traditional insurers differ from HMOs What are provisions and exclusions How can I be reimbursed for prescriptions How do basic and major medical policies differ What is a PPO How do I know what coverage best suits my needs Answers to these and many other questions are right at your fingertips. Order your copy of Your Guide To Good Health Insurance now! Dont find yourself in the same situation as our friend. Take control before its too late. Your family will thank you and youll be glad you did. We guarantee it! 100 Percent "Like It or Lump It" 90 Day Money-Back Guarantee!
