"How to turn your knowledge into mega profits!" Dear Friend, If you'd like to make $400.00 + per week working from home, tell your boss good-bye and become an on-line auction seller that gets bids even when bidding is at it's worse, then this might be the most important letter you'll ever read. Here's why: I'm going to show you how you can make $400.00 to $1,200.00 dollars per week by creating and selling books you've written on ebay and Yahoo, the giants of on-line auctions. These are easy goals to obtain following my secret techniques. And don't worry; you don't have to be a professional author in order to write a book. It's easy to do and I'm going to show you how! I myself have made as much as $3,400 off just one weeks worth of sales and I never made more than a C in English! Now, I know you're probably skeptical. That's normal and healthy. Let me give you three good reasons I can back up what I claim: Reason one: I practice what I teach. I am constantly creating products to sell with on-line auctions, and I constantly make $400.00 or more per week using these terrific techniques. Reason two: People love my products so much that they are constantly recommending me to their family and friends. Reason three: I have 2 years experience as an auction seller and spend sometimes as many as 20 hours per week researching to see what it is that bidders want. I know what I'm talking about when it comes to finding out what people are wanting and then making sure I provide the solutions they are seeking. Maria I just wanted to say that your new eBook has me so excited I can't wait to get started! You share some tips that I just KNOW will make my auctions so much more successful than they have been. This is the third book I've purchased from you and once again you have not left me disappointed. You're work is excellent and top notch in my book! Charlene Webb eBay Seller Here is a summary of the benefits you receive: You won't have to visit another yard sale or thrift shop in order to find items to sell. Before long you'll have several products that you can publish on demand making as much money as you want. You determine what you want to make each week, and you work towards that goal. No more sweating it out to see if you're going to make any money that week if bidding is bad. You'll feel confident knowing that when you list your products that the bids will start rolling in. These products are easy to ship. No worrying about breakage or packing material. You just put them in an envelope and send them on their way. No more taping layers of bubble wrap around fragile items only to find that they arrived broken. You'll learn how to research your idea first before you create your products so that you'll know when you list them that you are providing material that consumers are craving. You'll learn customer support tactics that will ensure that your customers turn into repeat buyers, and start recommending your product to all their family and friends. I share with you what I have discovered through many trials and tests, how to create an auction ad that will have bidders dying to purchase your product. These are techniques that I have perfected over the past 2 years, and with each improvement I've made with my ads, the more the bids skyrocketed. You'll learn how to look at auctions from a bidder's point of view. The more you're able to understand your potential bidders, the easier it'll be for you to cater to their needs. I'll show you how you can turn an everyday problem, that you've found a solution for, and turn it into a wealth of information that consumers will purchase like crazy. Test auctions are one of the keys to ensuring that you have an idea that will sell. I'll share with you how I run my test auctions first before creating my product, to ensure that the product will be profitable before I waste my time on it any further. You'll learn how to stay focused and on track during the creation process. This is one of the hardest parts of writing a book, but I'll show you how I stay focused and on track to ensure that my books are completed right on schedule. When it comes to publishing your manual, you don't have to hire a printer. You can publish them yourself right in your own home and I'm going to share with you the 3 best ways I publish my own manuals. The terms that you put in your auctions can make or break you. Make sure you have bidder friendly terms before you ever start your first auction. The answer is in Chapter 5 of "Auction Explosion" Handling Your Auctions. Did you know that by offering free shipping, not only can you increase your profits but also see your bids DOUBLE? I show you why in Chapter 6 "Tips & Tricks" where I share with you tips that I have implemented in my own auctions that produced amazing results.  Free bonus one: Resell and Redistribution rights for "Auction Explosion".
