Corner The Local Search Engine Market Four Steps to Ensure your Business will Capitalize from Local Google Search Exposure We live in an age where everyday more and more people are connecting online. The internet is more of a household necessity than passing fad. With the proliferation of smart phones, laptops and wireless internet, people can access the internet anywhere. If someone needs information they are more likely to turn to a search on Google than they are a magazine, encyclopedia or even the handy yellow pages. The last point is what makes this guide valuable. When people search Google for a local service or product, are you showing up to them? If you aren't then you are missing out on a number of potential leads and sales. Corner The Local Search Engine Market is a powerful 12 page instructional guide that teaches any offline company the 4 most important aspects of local Search Engine Optimization. It references proven strategies that my team has used over and over again in our offline consulting engagements to get proven and predictable results. Highlights of this guide include:

- * An easy to follow SEO knowledge transfer that can be understood by anyone who knows what a search engine is
- * An overview of the online landscape explained in a way that persuades offline prospects to take interest
- * How offline businesses should pick keywords
- * A simple tip that will improve the ranking of most offline businesses
- * An offline strategy that could open the door to additional deals
- * A back linking process that an offline business can outsource or assign to a staff member
