Dear Friend, If you've been doing business on the Internet for any amount of time, you probably eat, sleep, and breathe the word advertising. How do I advertise? What is the most effective form of advertising? Why is my advertising so ineffective? How can I advertise to double my profits? Advertising, advertising, advertising...it is the cornerstone of our business! The most effective form of advertising is eZine advertising...it is a fact. For years, my clients and I made huge profits placing ads in eZines, with the best results obviously coming from solo advertisements. Then one day, a light bulb popped on in my head...and I realized that even though I am advertising successfully, I am still not using eZine advertising to its fullest potential! I hate generalizations, but I've noticed a growing trend in relation to eZine advertising. This trend involves solo ads, and that solo ads are THE best form of eZine advertising. Well, this is not entirely true, and eZine Success will prove them wrong! Solo ads are not the only option, and are certainly not the most profitable one. Have I caught your attention yet? Do you want to get at least 5 times the results that you would get from a single solo ad and for a fraction of the cost? I thought so. Steven, I dont usually write to ebook authors but after reading eZine Success I had to contact you and tell you how much I learned from it. I am just starting the eZine advertising portion of my marketing campaign and you have readily compiled every thing I needed in one eBook! I have been successful in internet marketing now for over 5 years and I am quite confident that if I would have had this information when I started my net profits would be thousands more than what they are! Im off to take advantage of what I have learned. George Chapin This eBook will take you from start to finish down the road to writing a meaningful report. It is with these small but powerful reports that you are able to get your advertisement in front of thousands of readers because of your "ByLine". Steven takes you by the hand and guides you step by step, word by word, as you complete the process of creating this report or eBook. He leaves no stone unturned as he guides you from start to finish. If you need to advertise, and who doesn't....you need this book!
