I knew I had put this book in good hands when I talked to the person who wrote it. After all, where else can you get amazing advice but from someone who's been there and realized success? When I contacted her to write this book, here's what she told me. When my mother and I decided to start selling our crafts at the most popular fairs we could find, we were a little apprehensive. We didn't have a book like this to guide us along. We had a great idea for unique, easy-to-tie scarves and decided to join our post-Thanksgiving craft show held the two days after Turkey

Day! We figured, well, the big stores make a profit, maybe we can too! We were surprised beyond our beliefs! We spent $400 for the fabric to make the scarves, and four days sewing the scarves. When the show was over and we counted our money, and were completely shocked to find we had over $6,000 in our cash box. First, we freaked out that we had so much money and didnt really notice it. We were so very busy both days, we didnt pay that much attention to making bank drops and such. We sneaked to the car very carefully and drove like heck to get home and figure out our profit. $6,000 Cash Box $ 400 Expenses $ 40 Constructing Product: 4 hrs. @ $10/hr $ 50 Booth Space $5,510 Net Profit Thats nearly $3,000 a piece for two days work! WOW! We were happy wouldnt you be? Well, Wouldnt You Be? Of course you would. My author has made a great living selling her crafts for a tidy profit for years. Thats why I wanted her to write this book from an experts point of view! She did it and so can you! You can find all sorts of advice and information about how to make money selling your crafts. In fact, there are all sorts of how-to guides out there that claim they will make you a professional with just a little know-how. Were not like those other people. What We Tell You Actually Works! Craft Fair Goldmine will take what you already know and expand it into thinking of yourself as more than just a crafter. Youll be a business after reading this book. Thats right, a real bonafide business. Dont miss out on the opportunity of a lifetime. I wondered how I could offer this book to people who wanted to make crafting their living at a price they could afford. I decided that $13.95 was a fair price to offer all of this information to you today. Maybe you think thats too much money. Thats alright, I respect that. But go back and re-read this letter and realize just what Im offering here. You wont be able to find such a complete guide to starting your own crafting business anywhere else.
