Current as of Patch 3.2 Stand out amongst the zillion DK flooding the lands of World of Warcraft - become an AWESOME DPS Death Knight and see more content! Death Knights are well known for their ability to dish out an amazing amount of DPS right from the start, and the typical well-gearred and experienced DK DPS can easily top the charts in many fights. Just coming up to 80, however, you won't be well-gearred enough to be truly awesome, but with a bit of focused efforts you can be there in no time! Do you know what type of gear you're aiming for, and what stats you're aiming for? How about where to find all that hit-rich gear you need? If not, do you want to waste the time looking up where to find it all? Or do you just want to PLAY? I know my own answer - I developed this gearing guide in advance so I wouldn't have to waste time I could be spending in a more fun manner once I got to 80. And I'm happy to share this guide and all of its knowledge with you, so you, too, can play instead of spending time waiting for slow, graphic-laden websites to load up.
