Dont want to work 9 5 for the rest of your life? Keep reading and find out exactly how thousands of people just like you are becoming fanatically free by investing in Real-Estate. Dear Friend, Linear income, its what keeps most of us from having the free time to do things we love, spend time with our friends and family and just plain enjoy time off any time we like. For most of us, linear income keeps us from trying new things and realizing our dreams. So what exactly is linear income? Linear income is the type of income where you get paid an X amount of dollars per every hour you work. Its the most common type of income among average income persons. Whats wrong with this? First, working 40 hours a week does not give you a lot of time to commit yourself to something you might want to do. Second, if you want a roof over your head and food on the table you cant simply stop working because if you have a linear income, you would loose your income as soon as you quit. Basically, a linear income keeps you working not because you want to but because you have to. Im sure you would rather be traveling the world, spending time with family and friends, creating something with your hands etc. rather than spending time staring at a computer screen in some office. So whats the alternative? Residual Income. With residual income, you dont get paid for every hour you work. You only have to set up a residual income once and can get paid every month after that for the rest pf your life. Basically, you dont have to keep working in order to keep getting paid. You work once, set up your income and enjoy it for the rest of your life (or how ever long you decide to keep it). And the absolute best way to set up a residual income (especially if you currently have a full time job) is by investing in real estate!
