

Profit From Low Ticket Items Mrr

DOWNLOAD HERE

"Who Else Wants To Discover How To Create and Sell Small $5 - $10 Products and Sell Truck-Loads of Them?" Low-Ticket Products Are The Easiest To Sell Because Your Prospects Hardly Need To Think Twice About Making A Buying Decision... Dear Friend, Before you start selling a high-ticket product you need to first create a low-ticket product so that your customer can move down your sales funnel. It's important to price your low-ticket product as low as possible, but at the same time not devalue the product. This will ensure that you'll get as many qualified customers in your system so ultimately you'll make more profits per customer. The problem is coming up with ideas and generally creating a low-ticket product. What topic should you base it around? What price should you put? What types of low-ticket products can you create? How do you write a salesletter to make a profit from low ticket products? These types of questions appear all so often so I've written a special report to teach you the concepts of low-ticket products. Introducing... This special report will detail: The types of low-ticket products you can produce. I'll share 16 types of products you can create. How to write a salesletter for your low-ticket item What is a low-ticket item? What is the difference between a low-ticket item and a high-ticket item? Why giving a lot of value in your low-ticket item produces more profits in the long run. Why you should price your low-ticket item as low as possible -- even if you think its value is worth a lot more. An easy way to find out what price you should price your own low-ticket product. Why you need a balance of both low and high-ticket items The advantages of selling low-ticket items Why "volume" is important for the life of your business. How low-ticket items create "viral traffic" for your business, and how it will bring you more customer without much more effort. Using the concept of "sampling" for bigger profits. How low-ticket products helps establish a solid and positive rapport with your customers. Developing your own "bread and butter" low-ticket items for maximum profits and much, much more! As you can see, you'll be increasing your knowledge to another level with the information provided in this special report. I'll Hand You All This Information For Absolutely No Cost And I'll Tell You Why... I could easily charge anywhere from $27-$47 for this information. The reason why I'm offering you this information for free is simply because I want you to experience a lot of valuable information so that you'll have no doubt that my other products are just as valuable. Which leaves us to the question of the day... Wouldn't you like to have multiple low-ticket products generating you profits and customers you can sell to over and over again?

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Profit From Low Ticket Items MRR