House Flipping Basics Master Resell Rights Included Making the Most of Fixer Upper Leverage When starting out in a fixer-upper business, you will first have to consider many things. It is never indicative to success to jump into any business venture prematurely and without proper planning. You will first have to learn as much as you can about the business before jumping on the bandwagon. Depending on how your business is financed, buying and selling these properties may involve very little or a lot of money. One good way to leverage your interests is to employ the use of other peoples money and resources.
