Drive tones of Laser targeted hungry buyers to any website you choose for pennies. No skill requires!

Your first question is probably what is Pay-Per-View marketing? Well Im going to tell you everything you need to know, so that you can get started turning all your websites into cash cows! Pay Per View marketing is the process of showing an ad to a potential buyer that agrees to view a certain ad when they receive something; let me go a little deeper. When someone receives a free cell phone ringtone or a discount on something, they agree to view other possible ads. Here is an example so that you can understand it a little better. Lets just say your niche is dating, relationship advice that type of thing. There are plenty of dating sites that flooded the internet a while back, some are free and some you have to pay for. People join these sites looking for a partner, so they wouldnt mind an ad popping up that offers them advice on how to get that special partner, or get tips on what to do. Lets take a quick peek inside to see what you will learn. I will show you the best PPV Companies to join that will make you the most money, and dont waste your time! You will learn some things to watch for while using PPV, so that you dont make the same mistakes I made at the beginning! I will show you how to maximize profits by using CPA offers with your product to make more money; we all want more money correct? This is key; I will show you how to test your product to get the best possible conversion rate. This guide will show you how to create a budget that will keep more money in your pocket, so that your return on investment is through the roof!

And thats just the tip of the ice berg!
