

Profiting After The Sale

Make Big Money after the Sale! How hard do you work to drive traffic to your website? If you are anything like the thousands of other Internet Marketers I've met with, I'm sure that you kill yourself working 12 hour days to ensure that you are driving enough traffic to your website to make it profitable. You probably wrack your brain thinking up new traffic driving ideas and spend hours analyzing your conversion numbers to make sure that you are making the amount of money that your site ought to be making. But have you ever wished that instead of one sale each, everyone who buys from you would buy twice. Maybe you've wished for a glitch in the PayPal computers or a browser problem that records every click twice. Have you ever sat down and figured out the math? How much money would you make if even half of everyone who has ever bought from you, bought twice? I know, it's a ridiculous scenario, but if it were possible or if it did happen, how great would that be, huh? You know, one of my websites had just such a problem and in correcting it, I figured out one of the most tightly controlled secrets in the IM business. If you listen closely, I'll do my best to explain everything to you in this digital download.
