How Would You Like to Make Money From Your Customers Over and Over Again While Only Selling to Them Once? The Secrets to Massive Membership Site Profits Revealed! And if you think you're going to need tons of money or technical knowledge to create a membership program, think again! Dear Fellow Lazy Marketer, Doing work sucks. Back in the day, I was busting my tail doing all this work just to make affiliate sales. Don't get me wrong I was making a tidy income from selling other people's products. At first, I didn't mind doing all that work because I was seeing some returns from it. So on I went, creating websites, writing content, and doing tons of boring manual stuff to bring in some sales. One day, it hit me - I was working hard every single day just to bring in some cash. I realized that I was just working at another job! This wasn't the lifestyle I had imagined when I started trying to make money online... I had heard of the term passive income before, but I didn't really know what it meant or how I could create some of it for myself. After months and months of trial and error and research, I was finally able to create multiple streams of passive income for myself using membership sites. This Stuff is Easy... Ok, maybe I'm a little biased because I've done it before. However, setting up your own membership site isn't all that difficult. Here are the most common excuses that people have for not starting their own membership sites: * Not enough money * Not enough time * Not enough technical knowledge * Not enough content * Not enough ideas * It's too hard! I'm here to tell you that I've found a way to get around all these obstacles. Stop Whining! If I told you that you needed to spend a few hours doing some hard work in order to make a recurring income of $1000 per month, would you do it? Even if, for some reason, you didn't have any time, wouldn't you MAKE time? For every business model online, you'll always hear people complaining about how they don't have enough money to invest or how they are too busy to get into it. Are you freaking serious? Every business, whether online or offline, takes money to scale, no exceptions. If you have money but you're not willing to invest it in yourself and your business, then I question your desire to make this work. If you truly don't have any money to invest, but strongly desire to grow your online business, then I would suggest that you suck it up and go get yourself a job. Every online business requires an investment to make it work, whether it be money or time, and the membership site model is no exception. I Wouldnt Be Able to Tell PHP from MySQL Heck if I know what those things stand for. Not techie? Me neither! Ill show you multiple ways of setting up your own membership site without needing the slightest bit of technical knowledge. In fact, you can start a membership site without ever needing an actual website! How cool is that? Ill even show you a few membership models which I have found to be extremely easy to set-up and extremely profitable. Trust me, if you know how to buy a domain name and hosting for that domain name, then youll be able to set-up your own membership sites. Not Content With Your Content? This is actually kind of funny, but a lot of the time when Im starting a new membership site, I only have the first months worth of content ready! I will literally start up a new membership site with barely any content created. A common gripe for beginners to the membership site business model is that they dont have enough content or ideas. I dont see how you could possibly NOT have any ideas, seeing as there is a virtually limitless number of niches just waiting to be exploited (ok, maybe exploited is the wrong word....served). Limiting yourself to the make money online niche would be leaving some serious cash on the table. You dont even need to have that much content to start out with! If you want to create a years worth of content before you launch your membership site, go for it! If youre lazy, then get someone else to do it. Its not mandatory to do that though...you can do what I sometimes do and just take my time to create content. The most important thing with membership sites is keeping them happy, so sometimes I like to customize the next months content just to tailor it to their needs. So you see, you DO have enough content. You dont need a hard drive filled with stuff and you definitely dont need a brain full of knowledge to start a whole bunch of membership sites. All you need is the drive to do it and proper instructions on how to get started. Introducing Membership Site Income Strategies Inside, youll discover secrets like... * What niche to start in membership site in to virtually guarantee that your customers will love you and want to stick with your membership site! (big hint its different for everybody) * How you can have a profitable membership site without even needing a website thats right, you can create a membership program without a domain or hosting (although there is the option to use a website)! * How you can set-up your membership sites and collect monthly paychecks from each of them without EVER having to touch them (no joke, I do mean completely hands off) * How you can create a membership program where members will actually feel bad for leaving! * How to get your members to continue paying you month after month even AFTER theyve gone through your membership program! * How to squeeze more money out of your members without them even noticing (actually, this isnt such a big secret) * How you can make MORE money by offering access to your membership site for free! * The one (simple, but huge) mistake on your salespage that will cause tons of people to leave your salespage without subscribing to your membership * The one aspect your membership program needs to have to instantly skyrocket its perceived value to the customer and cause more members to stay subscribed * The exact tools youll need to easily create your membership sites (most of which are completely free) What would monthly 4- or even 5-figure paychecks coming on autopilot be worth to you? How much would you be willing to pay if I were to teach you exactly how to set-up highly profitable membership sites with very little effort? Well, for just $1.99, you will get instant access to my incredibly valuable strategies to creating your own wildly successful membership sites.
