Related styles: CLASSICAL: Concerto, LATIN: Brazilian Folk Details: A vibrant, sophisticated, contemporary classical CD of pulsating, rhythmic works recorded live in Brazil by renowned musicians violinist Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg and duo guitarists Sergio and Odair Assad, Originis will have listeners falling in love with Latin America. Named after the CD's orchestral work (Concerto Originis) written for the trio by Sergio Assad, this passionate recording is the seventh from the NSS MUSIC label. It features the musicians performing with the Orquestra Sinfonica do Estado de So Paulo in Originis, and as a trio in works by Ginastera (Tres Danzas Argentinas), Piazzola (Milonga Per Tre) and Clarice Assad, Sergios daughter and award winning composer/pianist in her own right (Three Sketches). The CD comes complete with a special bonus track. Originis, with works by four composers performed by three musicians, featuring two different musical scopes intimate and grand, equals one unique CD not to be missed.
