Both inspirational and emotional, these modern piano melodies attempt to capture your heart and soothe your mind. Growing up in a musical family, Isaac began playing piano/keyboards by ear at the age of twelve and very soon thereafter started performing with his family at random venues throughout Southern California. After collaborating with his family on their first full-length album, Isaac produced his own CD called "On Subtle Ground" in 1998, featuring original keyboard instrumentals. Over the years, Isaac has played piano for numerous church worship teams and has continued to collaborate with his family, adding piano to the rock "Moment By Moment" CD and to the Beatles/Everly Brothers love-songs tribute album called "From Me To You." In 2005, Isaac produced his first live piano album, "Swept Away." Isaac enjoys composing music across diverse genres, including classical, jazz, pop, rock, techno, electronica, and trance. His music and orchestrations can also be heard in several casual games, including "Airport Mania: First Flight", "Build in Time", and "Music Catch."
