This one is unstoppable - Get your hands properly filthy and unleash the raw synth power that's driving the notoriously dirty Dutch House sound to world domination! This sample pack is the first of its kind! Spearheaded by the likes of Chuckie, Afrojack, Sidney Samson, LMFAO and now even the Black Eyed Peas, this genre is built around squelchy full-frequency analogue synth riffs, driving the oscillators to the limit to extract the nastiest and most wickedly addictive synth hooks in the charts. Equipped with over 120 heavily pitched and processed synth loops & lead hooks, our brand spanking new "Dirty Pitch" sample pack brings you all the synthesized madness you need to make the crowd go crazy! All the licks in this pack are in pristine 24bit and they come locked at a flexible 127bpm, including many variations for constructing your own breakdowns and build-ups. Drop these cuts straight in on any pounding electro-house or genre bustin' pop beat and you'll have an easy ride straight to radio playlists and superclub stages worldwide. Using Sequential Circuits' legendary Pro One as well as an array of other original monophonic analogue synths, this pack has been produced to the highest professional standards by our expert engineers and producers, backed by our triple-check quality guarantee. All our files come pre-formatted for your hardware and software, and our 100 royalty-free guarantee allows you to rip up the airwaves in any territory without legal hassles. If need to put "reinforced dancefloor" on your technical rider, you know you're doing something right. With these dangerously gritty and glitchy electronic explosions in your arsenal, your productions will instantly rise above the copycat crowd and deliver maximum satisfaction to a superwide audience. Stomp your feet and punch your fists directly upwards, you're a seriously "Dirty Pitch"!
