

Auction Accounting Pro With Bonuses

Auction Accounting Pro is not a web based program. Web based programs charge monthly fees that can cost you hundreds of dollars over time. Web based programs also store your data on other servers which compromises your privacy. This will show you how to download your PayPal fees, PayPal sales, and PayPal customer database directly from the PayPal website. This can greatly reduce data entry. This will show you how to record eBay fees once per month with no hassles or tedious data entry. This will explain the IRS requirements for cash and accrual accounting. Cost of goods sold is calculated in the same manner as required by the IRS. Two free programs accompany your purchase: Auction Tracker and Consignment Companion. Auction Tracker is a simple yet powerful way to track your eBay auctions and profits per auction. You can even import listing data from Turbo Lister! Consignment Companion calculates and prints client invoices for eBay consignment businesses. Included with Consignment Companion is a sample consignor / consignee contract agreement. Consignment Companion is not a web based program and requires no monthly fees. Auction Accounting Pro requires Microsoft Excel or OpenOffice to run. You can download OpenOffice for free online. About MAC computers: Auction Accounting Pro will run on MAC computers as long as Excel or OpenOffice is installed. OpenOffice is compatible with a MAC as well. Please Note: This software is password protected and cannot be modified except for where custom changes are permitted.
