'Supalife Electro House' features 5 stunning construction kits totalling 1.3 GB per format. You'll find quirky basslines, glitched vocal fragments, rises and drops, and an array of expertly programmed beats and one-shots. Producer Eddy Beneteau steps it up a notch once again, with 'Supalife Electro House', a collection of 5 funky and filthy construction kits designed for producers of Electro House music. If you like your drums to swing, your basslines to squelch and your synths to stutter then this is the pack for you. Every sound has been custom programmed, including a selection of FX rises and accents. There are also synthesized vocal samples, and other miscellaneous fragments that give these kits a dense energetic vibe. Future Music Review (November 9/10): "Producer Loops' collaboration with Eddy Beneteau continues with another high-quality package, this time aimed at Electro House producers. The five construction kits included here offer just about everything: drums, bass, synths and a variety of FX plus one shots if you want to make your own riffs and rhythms. Prices for the full packages starts at GBP 24.95 (USD $41.35) (for the REX files only) and go up to GBP 34.95 (USD $57.92) for Apple Loops or WAV files plus REX and MIDI. As usual from Producer Loops, it's a very versatile package of top quality sounds that tick all the Beatport boxes and should slot into your club tracks with ease." SCORE (9/10) Multi Format: All 5 kits are available as ACID/WAV, MIDI is also included. One Shots: 'Supalife Electro House' comes complete with one-shot samples used in the creation of the loops themselves, to allow you to create your own variations on beats, fills and melodic sequences that will work seamlessly with the existing content. You'll find 200MB of one shot content - 171 samples split across all 5 kits - ranging from kicks, snares and hats to FX, synths, basses, and more. About MIDI: The audio formats included with this pack provide producers with immense flexibility in terms of pitching, and tempo. But if you're after total control, you'll also find over 140 MIDI loops ready to import into your project. MIDI allows you to play the musical content heard in these loops through your favourite synths or samplers. Because MIDI only contains the information to trigger the notes, you can play the loops at any speed and any tempo without glitching or stuttering. Royalty Free: All of the loops included in this pack are 100 original and cleared for both personal and commercial use. For further information you can download the license agreement

before you buy. Specifications: - ACID/WAV and MIDI - All loops at 128BPM
