Parked Domain Bargain is a extraordinarily simple php webmaster resource which can turn your domain from an idle parked domain to a fully functional website with a massive amount of content, a gigantic selection (millions!!!) of youtube videos and great SEO valued articles right from article base directory. Google will fully recognize your website as genuine and unique!!! Whether you have a domain related to food and lifestyle .. or like tv shows and movies.. this nifty little tool allows you to create an automated content website in a flaw of few minutes. It is very easy to alter the website configuration and takes only a few minutes for each website... as simple as editing word documents. One of the scripts biggest advantages is that it does not require any mysql database to operate, so it will not be taking system resources on your server and run stable on almost all hosts. The information to be changed in the config files are : 1: the website path : the basic http url of your website... like yoursite.com/ 2: the meta keywords : as the name suggests , they are the meta data keywords which bots see. 3: meta description : once again meta data description 4: site name : your website name 5: key array or group: these 3 keywords govern the whole generation of content. set them according to your genre and you are good to go! This is a great tool for entry level to professional webmasters! This script is new and the price will sure raise with the time and constant building, so Grab this Script now before it becomes 99$!!! Requirements:PHP 5, Curl, Mod_rewrite enabled (most free hosts offer this) Tags: seo
