Do you believe in monsters? We do, because we've created one! "Big Nasty Electro Basslines" is the beastly new bass sample pack fresh from the Prime Loops audio lab, combining some fearsomely feral bass and cacophonous synth chord progressions to unleash the Frankenstein within your music! This dangerous and vast selection of adrenalin-chugging basslines packs savage punch, filthy intensity and head-spinning agility, and is arranged across three folders of basslines, synth chords and bass one-shots. From the fluttering crunch of "Rinse" to the bright and breezy "Freshness", the surging splendor of "Bounce" and the sporadic shifting of "Swagger", this sophisticated beast of a pack is bursting to be unleashed upon your Electro House productions! Created, tried and tested by Prime Loops' very own resident bass crusader Frederik Mooij each loop features multiple variations, so you can build a wall of sound around your beats -- you'll find everything from a couple to as many as 10 variants per loop, allowing you to infuse entire tracks with your favourite squelching bassline or mighty sub sound! Weighing in at over 270MB, "Big Nasty Electro Basslines" is available via direct download in blissfully clear 24-bit quality. Should you choose to add this venomous Electro pack to your sample arsenal, you'll find almost 200(!) basslines at your disposal, along with a selection of 100+ bass one-shots and over 30 synth chord progressions -- everything needed to slam the motor of your Electro House tracks into the highest gear! So if you're looking for the ultimate in-your-face bass, this sample library guarantees to get the party jumping! Keep a firm hold on this one though - it's big, it's scary and it wants to play with you! This is the .WAV format. You can find many other specialistic formats at bit.ly/BigNastyElectroBasslines
