"Wow, this is a Really Fun Program..." My brother has been showing me his "special" software tools for years now ... but I have to admit, wow, this is a really fun program to play with. This software helped me decide who to buy from on eBay. I'm always looking for the best deal on photography equipment but I don't trust all those sketchy eBay sellers. Feedback Analyzer Pro separates all the feedback comments so that I can easily view the negative and neutral comments ... then I can make a better decision if I want to buy from that seller. But, the really fun part is generating those cool looking feedback ads. Great work bro! Don Guindon (Dave's Brother) DonGuindon.com "... You Seamlessly Amaze Me Dave ..."

Yet again ... you seamlessly amaze me Dave! I don't know much about software programming, but it looks like every time you do something new, it's keeps getting better and better. Nice work! I have been playing with the ad creator all morning. This new tool is very fun to play with. I wish my html editor was this easy! Good work and thanks again Dave, Scott Foster, NicheJournal.com Need-An-Article.net "Very Easy to Use!" A great software tool and most importantly, very easy to use! I was definitely impressed with the ease of use. Among all the endless software programs on my computer Feedback Analyzer stands out in my books. Thanks Joan Skipley "I Love My Latest Creation ..." I have to admit ... I love my latest creation! This software was very fun to design. The main focus was trying to integrate a new feature that will help increase the user's income on eBay. As a result, the feedback ad creator tool was created. This single feature has the potential to dramatically increase your eBay sales. Plus, it's very easy and fun to create those eye-catching feedback ads. No code or html knowledge required. Simply point and click and your ad appears before you! For more details on how to use this feature see video 2 here. And of course ... the main feature of this software is the ability to quickly extract those negative and neutral comments from any ebay member. This can quickly help you determine if you really want to buy from a given eBay member. For more details on how to use this feature see video 1 here. Thanks Dave Guindon Some of Dave's Web sites:
