A little koala meets some of the strange animals of Australia, and tries to do the things that they can do. Can you guess who is talking on each page? Curious Coco tries to imitate each animal she meets, until she learns what koalas do best. This sweet and silly adventure introduces young children to some of the exotic animals of Australia, while the richly colored illustrations contain clues to what type of animal might turn up next. In the end, young readers will agree with Coco that there's nothing better than a hug. This book has been awarded the Weekly Reader Seal of Approval. Vera de Backker originally published Coco the Koala in the Netherlands. She has also illustrated other books about Coco, including Coco's Surprise and Coco Makes Music.
