And if you have heard of the public domain, this letter is going to show you some of the hidden tricks that you've never thought of or been told before. I urge you to continue... You Don't Have To Write A Single Word Or Pay A Penny To Have High Quality Products You Can Sell As Your Own... Dear Friend, With all of the garbage information out there it's hard to believe anyone when it comes to trying to setup an online business for yourself. I am going to reveal to you a system so amazingly simple that you'll literally be able to create an entire several hundred page product that's unique to you in under an hour. No that's not a hyped up exaggeration filled with wishful thinking, it's the plain and simple truth. You may be skeptical and rightly so, it's hard to figure out who to trust on the Internet. Simply join me on this short, revealing read that will show you the truth, the exact path to follow and how easy this really is and I know you'll be confident in what you can accomplish. Do I Really Need A Product Of My Own? YES, Absolutely! Sure you can make money online with out one but you will be limiting yourself of potential profit. To bring your income to the next level you really need to have a product of your own. Not to mention the fact that you need it to build up some credibility as an expert in your market. Think about it... If you were marketing other people's products, don't you think you could sell more of their products if you had your own related product showing that your recommendation is, in fact, an expert recommendation? ABSOLUTELY! It's all about credibility online. I'm sure you wouldn't mind seeing all of those 100 profit sales coming in as well :) I Don't Want To Write Or Pay A Writer To Create Product, So How Can I Still Enjoy The Benefits Of My Own Product? This is where the public domain is really going to help you and make your life easy. In a nutshell, the public domain is where books end up after their their copyright expires. Once the copyright expires, the text becomes "Public Domain" which means anyone can take that text and edit it, change it or present it as they see fit and sell it. You keep all the money from the profits of selling the product! You can also add some content and change some of the text to make it a completely unique item and copyright it yourself, so now you have a copyright on a book that you didn't even have to write! Isn't It Hard To Locate These Works? Well, it is hard to find good public domain content if you don't know where to look and exactly what to look for. Are they hard to find with these tools I'm sharing with you? Nope! Absolutely not! They're easy to find. You can even find them from the comfort of your own home using some simple search tools on the Internet. You can also find them in your local book stores if you know exactly what to look for. You are going to learn the secrets that no one is sharing because they don't want everyone coming and grabbing all the good works! You Can Have A Famous - World Renowned Author Write A Book For You Free! Maybe you're thinking that these products are probably trash or stuff that no one wants to buy. That's a fair and reasonable thought... But these are world wide best sellers, some written by famous people that have already sold millions of copies in some cases. Did you know that Shakespeare and many of the greatest plays in world history are in the public domain? So is Think & Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill and Scientific Advertising by Claude C. Hopkins! These are the 2 of the greatest business and copywriting books in history! You can literally take what a world famous author wrote and sold to millions of people and use it as your own! Imagine the possibilities of that... Hiring Ghost Writers Can Be A Risky Move... While many people teach you to hire a "ghost writer" to create your product for you, it can be risky. You may get a product that just isn't up to the quality standards your customers need. After all, you don't want all of your customers refunding your product because it sucks. That's one great thing the public domain helps you avoid. Also, remember that a ghost writer is going to get $1000.00 from you for a 50 page book and that's the dirt cheap end of what you can get a book written for. The quality is usually not as good as you anticipated either. Public domain isn't going to cost you a cent! Making A Killing With Public Domain Information Is Easy If You Know All The Secrets...
