From: MARTIN BOYLE Today's Date: Monday, July 5, 2010 Dear Professional Marketer, Did you know? Most of the TOP successful Internet Marketers that you and I know and heard of have one thing in common: they have their own products! And you should have your own, too, especially if you are really serious about becoming a TOP Internet Entrepreneur in your own rights. Think about it. By having your own products, you can: Sell and pocket 100 of the sales into your merchant account instantly - unlike affiliate programs, there is no need to wait up to 30 days to receive your commissions, and only a fraction on top of that. Own flexible rights over your own products - you can choose to sell your products for personal use only or even offer (Master) Resell Rights or Private Label Rights at 5 to 20 times the selling price! Decide how your product can be sold - you can offer it as a back end offer, a bonus to another product you are selling, add into your paid membership site, and so on. You can also chop your Info Products into smaller portions like articles for exposure and marketing campaigns. Even publish your work offline! And much more... these are just some ideas but the bottom-line is that by having your own product, it offers you little to no boundaries in exercising your flexibility to sell your own product, brand yourself... your imagination is the limit! But Creating Your Own Product Isn't Necessarily Easy. There is a huge problem, and it's none other than product development. You see, I've been creating a lot of Information Products to sell and while it is a wildly lucrative business for just about any one-man entrepreneur, it often comes with a price: time and effort consumption. And if you have created your own products before then surely you can relate to the tedious process - doing niche research, creating the product, proof reading, designing the Cover... the list goes on. Now maybe you hate writing. Or maybe you don't have the time for it. Perhaps you've considered engaging ghostwriters but can you afford it? So, the BEST solution? May I suggest that you drop all of your product development chores and... At the same time, words have the power to turn away potential clients, make people feel unappreciated, and ultimately lead to not only the loss of a sale today, but also the loss of sales opportunities in the future. As the choice of words can make a person rich and wealthy or poor with negotiations and closing deals, it is so crucial that I have nominated to include How to Use Words to Sell in the Internet Marketing Speed Series.
