Highly Controversial Relationship Marketing Secrets That Allow You To Persuade More People To Buy Your Products And Services Its easy to get people to do exactly what you want them to do as long as you follow a few simple rules. From: Martin Boyle If you can answer yes to the following questions, you want this report. Have you been looking for a practical way to make your business stand out (in just a few minutes) so that people come to you for advice on what products to buy and where to spend their money in general? Have you been looking for a way to quickly influence people to buy your products and the affiliate products you recommend no matter how many so called competitors you have? Have you been looking for a way to get people to sometimes mindlessly follow your suggestions even if they normally wouldnt do what youre asking of them for anybody else? Dear friend, Let me ask you something... If you were a gas station attendant and a 6 200lb man (you have never seen before and who doesnt work with you) walked up to your service window at 2:00 in the morning and asked you to unlock the door so he could get in, would you let him in? For most people reading this the answer would be no, but Im that 6 200lb man and Ive been escorted inside of five locked gas stations at five different locations at 2:00-3:00AM by people on duty who have never seen me before simply because I understood exactly what to say to immediately appear harmless and trustworthy. In fact, at one gas station the attendant threatened to call the cops on a guy standing right behind me because he wanted to get inside too. He had to leave under threat of arrest while the attendant locked the door behind me after letting me in and the reason why is simple. The other guy didnt know the right way to ask for what he wanted. How about this? If you worked at an office building that requires all employees (no exceptions) to have a picture identification card with a security code that has to be swiped before the doors will open and you were warned that you could get fired for letting anyone (even other employees who have forgotten their id badges inside), would you let anyone in? Probably not but that didnt stop me from getting people (employees who were told theyd be fired for letting people in) to repeatedly let me into that type of building without a picture id card (because I obviously didnt work there and even told people I didnt) while wearing blue jeans, a regular shirt and tennis shoes. For the life of me I dont know how anyone could rationalize letting someone they dont know, who doesnt look like he works there and who also doesnt have an id badge into their office building after being told they could be fired for doing so, but thats exactly what happened. In my defense, at the time I didnt know that people could get fired for letting me in so when I found out I stopped trying. Im not saying that you should use this information to get people to do things they could get in trouble for doing. I take no responsibility for your misuse of the information in this report because ultimately what you choose to do is completely up to you. Something Interesting Ive Found When you give people a few simple things they want up front, many of them find it hard not to give you what you want even if it goes against their own best judgment. I know it seems hard to believe but people will often do what you ask even if they dont think they should. Ive put that to the test many times and the results are shocking. Instead of giving you too many specific do this and then do that techniques, Im giving you the mindset behind the techniques so youll completely understand how to apply these methods to your business as soon as you finish reading the report. In this report youll discover... The one thing you must do up front to immediately separate yourself from the competition and get people to see you as someone worth listening to. If youre not doing this, youre losing money every single day of the week. Period. The big secret to getting people to believe what you say so that they will do whatever it is youre asking them to do even if they know they probably shouldnt. This secret shows you how to get people to almost mindlessly hand you control of their decisions. How to instantly connect with your readers so the thought of doing business with your competitors in the future becomes a complete joke. Many of your competitors act like mindless commission hungry robots so use that to your advantage. Three rules you must follow if you ever hope to have any chance to put yourself in class of your own where you never have to worry about what your competitors are doing. Its all about you and your business and this is how you make sure other people (with money to spend) feel the exact same way. How to immediately change the way people think about and react to you. This allows you to catch them off guard (in a good way) and make them more receptive to what youre asking them to do. Many times, the difference between who people thought you were and who you appear to be is enough to get them to follow your suggestions. A lot of what I talk about in this report are the concepts behind why certain things work. If I gave you nothing but specifics with no real understanding of why they work, youd have a hard time duplicating them in your own business. Concepts are the ideas that go into creating specific techniques. When you understand the concept behind a specific technique or strategy, you can basically create an endless variety of specific techniques and strategies on your own. You're getting quality ebook of solid information you can start using to immediately impact your business and shield yourself from competition. You've probably never taken the time to notice before but many of the people you look to for advice on what products to buy already use this information to influence you. Grab this super informative report for only $17.00 and I will include Private Label Rights with it, meaning you can add your own name as the author, resell it, and keep 100% of the profits for life. To your success, Martin Boyle
