Landing Page Robot is an internet marketing product from Trey Smith. Basically it is a WordPress template, which is aimed towards creating Google friendly landing pages. If you have been actively involved in the affiliate marketing for the last year or two, you probably know that Google washed out a lot of affiliates that used poor quality landing pages for their Adwords campaigns. Landing Page Robot(LPR) was created to solve these problems. With LPR you can create nice looking squeeze pages, review sites, sales pages. Out of the box you can easily create contact pages, privacy policies, affiliate disclosures and etc. Everything is controlled by the push of a button, no HTML knowledge required. Within the video on the sales page Trey Smith claims that his landing pages were approved by Google. Landing Page Robot creates what Google wants a nice looking and informative website with a disclosure that you are using affiliate links. Landing Page Robot costs around $200, but you get a license to use it on the unlimited domains. Special Price!!!! $29.99 For A Limited Time!!!!How The Heck Can You Pass This Up!!!!
