TO THE CLOUD! Learn how to use the free cloud space to share all of your files, photos and videos with other devices and other people around your house and around the world. This will change the way you look at sharing your important files and memories. Cloud technology has become a staple for many business applications, however in recent months, since the launch of Windows 7 it has become a huge "buzz word" in the average person's vocabulary. The problem is that unless you are a real techie you probably don't know what it means and what you can do with it. The "cloud" simply refers to readily available storage that is accessible from another hard disk somewhere in the world. Cloud storage is now readily available and easily accessible. All you need to know is how to take advantage of it. This video series will show you how to use two different levels of cloud technology. Level 1 is your local cloud. Learn how to share your files with your household devices and wirelessly stream music, pictures and videos wirelessly to your computers and other devices. Level 2 will show you how to share all of your content using the internet. You will learn how to connect to cloud storage easily and share data to and from all your devices over the cloud. Here are just a few reasons that you should be using cloud technology: * Easy to access important files anywhere, anytime * Free Storage * Very secure * Easily share important events with friends and family. And lots more. I could fill a whole page..... These Easy Video Lessons will show you exactly how to quickly set up and use cloud technology. You don't need to spend any money on software. All you have to do is follow the simple instructions in my video series. Here is just some of what you will learn: * How to set up your local cloud. * How to set up your computer to act as a media server * How to use Windows Live Cloud Technology * How to use other cloud sources. and much more.....
