To find the answers and the liberating reality that they can provide you and your business, read on... Dear Friend, This letter isn't about learning how to market your business. It's far from anything like that. What this letter is about is taking what you already have and maximizing it's effect on your business in it's current state. You're going to learn how you can take the resources and potential clients that you have in front of your already and make them pay off big time. You won't be learning how to throw money at the problem by buying tons more advertising that you just can't afford with the hope that you'll break even. This is all about leverage and making what you have bring you the income and business success that you know you want and know you deserve. What I mean is this... You Don't Need More Traffic, More Clicks, More Visitors... The truth is, there are tons of courses out there that promise to be the solution to your profit problem on the Internet. The only problem is that they all focus on a single factor and that's getting more people to enter into your marketing funnel which means generating more traffic. I'm here to tell you that you don't need more traffic. You can make an excellent income with the traffic that you already have by doing nothing more than implementing what I'm going to teach you today. You see, I firmly believe that you have all the knowledge that you need to generate traffic to your site and generate enough traffic to meet your income goals. If you've read more than a couple of eBooks, articles, newsletters, reports, etc, you know exactly what I'm referring to. So what is this big secret that requires no more traffic?... Following Up Is The Secret To Massive Profit Online... Not sure what following up is? Well, let me first state a very well known and very true statistic that has been shared in business circles for years... "It will take 7-12 exposures to your product offering (in some capacity) before 99 of your potential customers will take action and make a purchase or take the action that you want them to" This is my expanded and more drawn out version of this statement but you get the point. The important thing to grasp here is the number of times they need to see your add per say but the fact that most people just aren't ready to make a purchase the first time they see a product. This means that you need to find a way to capture their contact information so that you can follow up with them and keep showing them the offering. This is the key factor to business success. But how do you follow up? This has been a pretty complicated thing to teach in the past but with an incredible new release you can...
