The First Expert Advisor To Use State Of The Art Built-in Trend Adapting Technology As Well As A Next Generation Market Timing Algorithm. How Much Can I Make? The most important thing people want to know about an expert advisor is how much it will make them. While this should NOT be the only thing of concern to you, we will get this out of the way first, then get to the important stuff.. Realistically, you can make as much as you are willing to start with. So lets say you start with a $500 micro account. Not a problem, Pipzu can be adjusted to run on that balance. Set your lot size from 0.1 up to 1.0 and you can expect to make around $25-50 per trade What about a $5000 initial capital? Now we are talking! You should be running a 1.0 to 3.0 lot size with this kind of account balance and you can expect anywhere from $100 to $600 per trade. For you big guns out there looking to start with $20,000+ you can expect to make at least a grand per trade running a 3.0+ lot size. Ok, now on to the features that should be most important to you! this site sold $99 pipzu.com/
