EXPOSED - The Hidden Truths And Secrets Of Successful Online Entrepreneurs! Dear Newbie Marketer: You're probably considering starting an Internet business because you want to be financially free or someone told you that starting an Internet business would be the easiest thing to do right? Hey just set up a web site, blog, work when you want to and in a short period of time lots of money will somehow, magically appear in your bank account. Well guess what. Statistics show that 90 of online startups FAIL within the first 120 days. But how can this be, you ask. After all, there are many so called experts and gurus who are earning massive profits in Internet marketing. They can't be faking it could they? You're looking at the 10 who made it. And no, the majority are honest, intelligent, hardworking marketers. Crooks usually get discovered...fast. Which brings me to the point what is the secret of success? Hard work? The answer is Yes, and No. Hard work without a concrete direction or plan is bound to fail, like a sports team with talent and fitness but led by a crappy coach. But I'm glad to inform you that someone has spent time and observed the behaviour of the top marketers around and has compiled tips and nuggets of their strategies and tactics used to reap in boatloads after boatloads of cash! So with great pride I am proud to be: Introducing: Successful E-Entrepreneur Secrets - Unearth The Minds Of Successful Internet Entrepreneurs From Around The Planet! In this in depth, well-researched freelancing guidebook you will learn: * The most dangerous misconception about making money online and why it must change. * Four common attitude problems that will lead to certain failure. * The three basic keys successful online marketers abide firmly by. * Four corner stones of the successful Internet entrepreneur which MUST be followed at all times. * Why a good business plan could be the stark difference between financial breakthrough and guaranteed marketing doom. * How to leverage properly, saving loads of time and effort using readily available tools of the Internet. * The tricks to building solid business relationships that place you in win-win situations! * Why you need an experienced Internet marketer to be your teacher and mentor. * The most important key to growing and expanding an Internet business, and why you cannot cut corners on this. * The difference between work and deals and what to place priority on in order to make your business a roaring success! And much, much more!
