PLRShoppingMall.tradebit.com/groups.php Advertising via pay per click isnt cheap. Im sure you figured that one out already due to the huge gaping hole you have in your trouser pockets because of all those harmless little clicks. Money just keeps pouring out... One click here. One click there. Darn. They sure add up fast dont they. Screw Google! you say. I feel you. Are pay per click prices really that bad? Arent we exaggerating a little too much? Okay.. Lets just have a look at the current typical prices our friend Google charges us PER click for some popular key phrases in a few rabid hot markets.. You should also know that one has to test a products conversion rate usually by analyzing the customer click through rate by sales. Many accept that a product should at least have a 1 conversion rate. This means that for every 100 people that visit your site, 1 person will make a purchase (for your product, service or whatever your offer). If you are creating a product (or service) to distribute to affiliate marketplaces, such as CJ.com, or Clickbank.com, then you better make sure that youve tested your products conversion rate. If your product converts badly, your affiliates will NOT be happy and that will DAMAGE your reputation and income. The point was, you have to test your site by getting at least one hundred people through to it. What do you think 100 clicks will costs you? Yeah, thats right...a lot of money! The search key phase for internet marketing for small business costs $12.24 for a good top placement. -----
100 Click thrus x $12.24 = $1224! ----- You better be prepared to spend that kind of money if you want to find out how many people that visit your site convert into sales (or leads which ultimately turn into revenue). Remember, if you dont test before recruiting affiliate to promote you product, you can severely damage your reputation and business with them. Its they who are spending their hard earned money and time to promote your product and if it doesnt convert well...then its your reputation on the line. You DEFINITELY need to have this secret in your hands as SOON AS POSSIBLE. You will NEVER again have to worry how much money Pay Per Click advertising costs. You will NEVER again have to worry if the product or service you have on offer will sell because it just will not matter - as there arent any direct ad expenses! ...[You WILL be able to enter ANY market and sell ANYTHING you want!]

Why? ..Because all the advertising will be FREE!! ACCESS THE SECRET STRATEGY TO FREE PAY PER CLICKS NOW!!
