The French Impressionist composer Claude Debussy got it right: "Music is the space between the notes." And he couldn't know that one day, we'd all be dancing to repetitive electronic beats for hours on end. Today, music often happens in the space between the beats. "Epic BuildUps & Breakdowns" gives you all you need to fill that space with music! This spanking new sample pack from Prime Loops gathers together 16 wholesome construction kits of trance - and dancefloor - inspired intros full of big-room energy, uplifting middleeights and truly majestic breakdowns ranging from 126 to 132 Bpm all of them are prepared for you to start easy and get to impressive results quick. The 1.2 Gigabytes of sounds, samples and FX contained in this pack have been forged exclusively for your production work, providing top-notch quality without any royalty hassles whatsoever the same careless and productive attitude you've come to expect from Prime Loops.
