Hollywood Drive is the essential guide to starting and succeeding at a career in film and television. Written by a successful Hollywood insider, Hollywood Drive will give the tens of thousands hoping to enter the industry yearly the edge they need to battle against the intense competition. Few newcomers enter the job market understanding how the business truly works or how to land a first job--much less how to truly succeed in the industry. Hollywood Drive realistically explores the best and worst aspects of the industry, various career options, effective job search strategies, what to expect on a first job, the importance of networking and building solid industry relationships, and how a production office and set operate. Unlike other books on the subject, it doesn't focus on a single career path; rather, it explores the wide variety of possible career paths. With valuable input collected from other working professionals from all facets of
