In 2522 a special forces team must fight a desperate battle to save mankind from our worst enemy. In 2522, Captain Roger Langston of the Amalgamated Confederacy is ordered to train, equip and deploy a Special Forces Team in support of Operation Tango Slam. Striking deep into enemy territory, Captain Langston and his 'Wolf Pack' must locate and secure their target while facing overwhelming enemy forces. During their long march behind enemy lines they also struggle against a hostile and lifethreatening environment. There is a traitor in the Confederacy who tries to destroy the team from the inside. Along the way, the men must face their inner demons as they come to grips with a fight for their very souls. A story of war and warriors, betrayal and intrigue, hatred, and understanding. A man must look inside his own heart and discover that which drives him. If you look for honest answers, you may not always like what you find. But in an honest search of your soul, you will find enlightenment. Only then can you change.
