Having video on your web site creates a personal connection with your customers that that appeals to all their senses, as a result converting more visitors to customers A touch of live video will motivate your customers to take action now rather than skim through all the text and eventually click away to another web site. It provides an easy way for your visitors to quickly appreciate what you offer without going through the rigorous effort of doing a lot of reading. Instant Video Creator is a revolutionary new software that allows multiple users to create their videos under their own accounts. Not only can you use it to create just your own streaming videos, you can also start your own service where you charge a monthly fee to host such videos for your customers. Whether it's a commercial, a demonstration, sporting event, customer testimonial or a video press release, you can now have it online within minutes using Instant Video Creator
