Dr. Joe Vitale - #1 Best-Selling Author "Spiritual Marketing" mrfire Date: February 27, 2011 From: Jeff Alderson Dear Friend, Are you just a little frustrated by online marketing methods that promise the moon but deliver just the dirt? Have you had it with the flood of eBooks and 'gurus' trying to sell you on what worked last year? If you are frustrated by slow, costly, ineffective methods that used to work, welcome to what works now! Welcome to Ad Word Analyzer. Whether you sell a product or service, run your own web site or are an affiliate, want more subscribers to your ezine or run a site as a hobby there is one cardinal rule to success on the Internet. Get it right and you can do almost everything else wrong and still succeed. Get it wrong and you won't succeed no matter how hard you work! That rule? Getting enough highly targeted traffic is THE key to success on the Internet! Only three weeks ago, one of the top online marketers put together a report that outlined the seven most effective ways to sell any product or service online. Using Pay Per Click Advertising, specifically Google AdWords, was his number one choice of marketing methods online! It's little wonder that Pay Per Click is wildly popular. PPC is the only method that can drive huge amounts of highly targeted traffic to your site TODAY. You see, PPC advertising is immediate! We often hear of customers establishing their Google AdWords or Overture account and getting traffic the same hour! Until now there have been two major problems with Pay Per Click Advertising. It takes too much time. It has become too expensive for most people to use. Today both of these problems have been SOLVED by one incredible piece of software! Introducing New Ad Word Analyzer 3.0! This is a great product I'm going to personally be using from now on. I was able to put in several keyword phrases I'm going to be working with and find non-competitive search terms for them in just a few minutes. It will definitely be something

Anik Singal - Webmaster affiliateupsell You Do Not Need to be a "Keyword Expert" to Succeed with Ad Word Analyzer 3.0! It's absolutely amazing! Now you can search for keywords AND their related Google AdWords and Overture campaigns using ONE single software program... Ad Word Analyzer! And it's SO easy to use... Simply open the program and enter a chosen keyword. With a click of your mouse, Ad Word Analyzer 3.0 will automatically return the following results: A comprehensive list of all RELATED keyword phrases! The number of searches that were conducted throughout the previous month for each keyword phrase! The number of advertising campaigns that currently exist - for both Google AdWords AND Overture! With one click you will have determined how to best market your product. You will see if an idea is popular based on the number of searches (# 2) how much competition exists based on the number of ad campaigns under way now (# 3) and the exact keywords you can use to bid cheap to lock in the maximum profits! (# 1) Think about it! With those three results alone, you've just shaved hours off the time it would normally take to conduct this type of research. But it gets even better... Ad Word Analyzer 3.0 ALSO displays the number of websites that are associated with each keyword. Then, it takes that number and divides it by the amount of searches that have been conducted, giving you the exact search to results ratio! So what does that mean to you? Armed with the results/search ratio for any given keyword, you can immediately gauge the actual supply and demand. The lower the R/S Ratio, the better the odds of you making money in that particular product or service niche! It's absolutely incredible! ONE program, ONE click, and all the keyword ad campaign information you need is right at your fingertips! Ad Word Analyzer is a huge time saver! Being able to know how many ads appear for keywords without having to type them in one by one is genius! I've been able to find popular keywords that don't have much competition at all. Now I don't do any keyword research without first using Jeff's software! Ad Word Analyzer has a permanent spot on my desktop. Way to go Jeff! Jeremy Wilson - #1 Resource For Google googuide Click here to drive traffic to YOUR site now! It Doesn't Matter What You Sell... "Ad Word Analyzer" Will Help You Sell More of It ! I opened Ad Word Analyzer the second I downloaded it, and I'm hooked! If you're looking at building sites for Google AdSense, it's a must have new tool. I've already made a note to rewrite several pages of a new AdSense site I'm working on because I've found no one is buying Adwords for the search words the pages were built around. But that's opened up another avenue. I'm now going to buy Adwords for those search terms and cash in. Your Ad Word Analyzer works fast and the displayed results are very easy to understand. More importantly, it instantly identifies underdeveloped niches, and search terms worth building campaigns around. Phil Wiley - All the Secrets Newsletter ozemedia Just like you, I'm always looking for ways to minimize my workload. But it's also important to find ways to save money on advertising. So how do I personally accomplish BOTH of those goals? With Ad Word Analyzer! Here's one example ... After writing an ebook called "Secrets Of A Successful Pro DJ", I advertised exclusively on Overture for the past year. Then, when I actually began using Ad Word Analyzer, I quickly realized just how much money I could save by advertising on Google! Here's what I did... Using Ad Word Analyzer, I ran a search for the keyword "dj". The results indicated there were 39 existing Overture campaigns but ONLY 3 Google AdWords campaigns! I knew I had found my opportuntiy! The fourth bidder on Overture was paying (and probably still is) a whopping $.40 a click! With the results I was looking at through Ad Word Analyzer, I knew right away I could bid a mere $.05 a click and be listed in the same position on Google. That would give me an INSTANT savings of $.35 a click! The bottom line? I set up a Google AdWords campaign for the keyword "dj". I'm currently receiving an average of 23 clicks a day on Google. That might not sound like much traffic. However, I'm saving $2,938.25 a year over what I would have paid without Ad Word Analyzer! And that's on ONE keyword. Multiply that times several keywords and we're talking a small fortune in savings! Knowledge is Power! So let me ask you something... How many keywords do YOU currently bid on... 5, 10, 100? Some keyword experts say you should be bidding on up to 500 or more keywords! If you do the math like I did, you'll quickly see it amounts to a whole lot of advertising dollars you saved, just by using Ad Word Analyzer 3.0! Jeff's Ad Word Analyzer has simplified my life. It used to take me several different tools and tedious steps to determine keywords I should bid on. Now I have one tool that does it all! This valuable tool saves me so much time and effort! With Ad Word Analyzer I was quickly able to find several overlooked keywords in the very competitive mortgage market. Thanks Jeff. This baby is going to make me a lot of money!
