Two Different Layouts Styles - With or Without Sidebar I know at times marketers just want a simple top-to-bottom layout without any distraction. This same mini site design is also available without the sidebar. In fact, you can toggle between the two easily, simply by applying the "full" class to , like this . Comes In Two Different Colors - Blue and Red Don't like the blue - use the red. Separate Photoshop PSD Source Files Included I can just give you the main PSD source file, but I know that Photoshop can be a challenge for some. So I've split those PSD files into several pieces making it easier to use and to understand Instead of one big PSD file, you will get PSD like header.psd and orderbutton.psd. No messy slicing required. What more can you possibly want...?? Using Mighty Minisite, you can have a brand new look and this could improve your conversions overnight.
